A screenshot of a racing simulator interface. On the left, there is a "Live chat" window with a list of messages from users like "SteamKing2160" and "Da BIG One". The main area shows a first-person view from the driver's seat of an orange and black open-wheel race car on a track. The dashboard displays various metrics: gear (6), speed (252 km/h), position (1/1), and fuel. On the right side of the screen, there are several data panels, including a "Driver" table with columns for Name, Lap Time, and Sector Times, and a "Status" panel with values for Ambient, Track, Wetness, Rain, and Wind. In the bottom right corner, there are logos for "Avid Chronic Racing", "Sim NEWS", and "SIMPIT". A small webcam feed in the bottom left corner shows a person wearing a racing helmet and a white shirt with "HOYER" on it, sitting in a racing seat.
